Centenary Wins Second Straight Summit League Sportsmanship Award

ELMHURST, Ill. – Centenary College has been honored by its fellow institutions with the 2007-08 Summit League Sportsmanship Award. It is the second year in a row the school has been given the prestigious award.

The Sportsmanship Award is given annually to the league institution that is judged by its peers to be the best in the league in living up to the ideals of sportsmanship. Areas for evaluation include student-athlete conduct, staff/administrator conduct, coaches' conduct and event management.

Past winners of The Summit League Sportsmanship Award include Centenary (2006-07), UMKC (1998-99), IUPUI (2000-01), Southern Utah (1999-00, 2002-03, 2003-04, 2004-05, 2005-06) and Valparaiso (2001-02).

The Summit League is comprised of 10 member institutions – Centenary College of Louisiana, Indiana University-Purdue University Fort Wayne (IPFW), Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis (IUPUI), University of Missouri-Kansas City (UMKC), North Dakota State University, Oakland University, Oral Roberts University, South Dakota State University, Southern Utah University and Western Illinois University. The league offers championships in 19 sports.
